

If elected, I commit to make Europe Poverty Free, to do everything in my power as a Member of the European Parliament to ensure:

- * Macroeconomic policies which promote human rights, tackle poverty and inequality and guarantee wellbeing.
- * Social protection systems and decent minimum income schemes, ensuring a dignified life for all: for all who need it as long as they need it.
- * Effective implementation of existing political commitments, including the Sustainable Development Goals and the European Pillar of Social Rights.
- * Effective participative processes which harness the expertise and know-how of all key actors, of people experiencing poverty and the organisations representing them.
